

BREAKTHROUGH

A SERIES IN REVELATION

01.26.20

Questions to consider:

When you hear Revelation, what do you think about? Does this produce fear or happiness?

How does knowing Revelation is all about Jesus change what you think about the book? How so?

Do you need a breakthrough? If so, describe.

What does it look like to trust Jesus more in this area? If you don't know, explain your situation to someone and your group. Let them give you some feedback on what trusting Jesus might look like.

God's word is full of places where He asks his people to trust him. Using a concordance, look up the word trust. Look at some of the verses where God says we can trust him. What do you learn from these verses?
