

BREAKTHROUGH

A SERIES IN REVELATION

04.26.20 SERMON RESPONSE

Let's start off with a little hope assessment.

Write down what you are hopeful for. Where do you expect a positive outcome in the days ahead? Make a list of at least 10 positive outcomes for your future.

Now make a list of what you think will be bad in the days ahead? Make a list of 10 negative outcomes for your future. Which list was easier to make? Are you more hopeful or more hopeless?

Where do you need hope to grow?

Take these action steps this week:

I need to believe God is attentive to me and wants the best for me.
Read Psalm 139 5 times this week.

I need to change some behaviors
Tell a trusted friend what needs to change in your life and ask them to check in with you next week to see if this has changed. Ask them to pray for you.

I need to let my faith fuel my actions
If you haven't done this yet, place your trust in Jesus for His offer of salvation. This is the first step in letting faith fuel your actions. Say this prayer: "God, thank you for Jesus' sacrifice, taking away the punishment of my sin. I say yes to Jesus and yes to following Him."

I need to trust heaven sees my obedience
Memorize Romans 8:31 and repeat it to yourself when you are rejected by people because of your obedience to God.