Sermon Response

When you hear, “Jesus is coming soon.”, what is your reaction? Take some time and think about it. Are you ready for Jesus to return right now? Why? Do you want to escape something here on earth? Do you want something here on earth before Jesus comes back? Write down your reaction.

As we wait for Jesus’ return, it’s often these “idols” in each of us causing disappointment in ourselves and in others. For example, if I have an idol of greed, I don’t want Jesus to return until I get the car, house, vacation, or boat first. If I’m pursuing these things instead of Jesus, I can easily disappoint those around me. How have the idols in your life caused disappointment in others?

How have others disappointed you?

How can you show grace to them?
