Sermon Response

John 19:25-27

1. What is your response to hearing God is your Father, and you are in the family of God?
2. How do families keep relationships open and loving?
3. How can you keep your relationship with God and your church family open and loving?
4. During this season of COVID-19, how can the church be like a family? What is your role in this?
