

SERMON QUESTIONS

How are you doing with your 10 people?

Have you heard your own story? I find most people are hesitant to share their story simply because they've never heard it. Speaking your story (even alone in your car) is a great way to prepare yourself to share it with others.

Looking at the natural rhythms of your life, where are some areas you can begin living out biblical hospitality (sharing your life and sharing your story)?

What about sharing your life/ story makes you uncomfortable?
