

SERMON RESPONSE

12.08.19

Describe a time where you felt alone (and didn't like it – let's be honest; being alone is sometimes an enjoyable experience).

When we feel alone, we can gravitate towards bad expressions of loneliness or faithful expressions of loneliness. What are some bad expressions of loneliness you gravitate towards?

What are some faithful expressions of loneliness you gravitate towards?

What helps you move from bad expressions to faithful ones?

Fred asked you to be the inviter when you feel alone. Who are the people you can invite over when you feel alone? Make a list here. When you feel alone, start reaching out to those on the list.

Fred also talked about serving others when you feel alone. What areas could you serve in?
